Begun in 1982, the Legislative Fellows Program links the research capacity of the University of Delaware, Delaware State University, and Wesley College with the research needs of the Delaware General Assembly.

For students, who are selected through a competitive process, the experience offers a valuable opportunity to observe and contribute to the governmental decision-making process.

Through their nonpartisan, in-depth research, Fellows assist legislators in dealing with critical issues facing the state. In recent years, Fellows have worked on areas as diverse as criminal justice reform, healthcare, government accountability and transparency, and women's rights.

Any full-time graduate student or especially qualified junior- or senior-level undergraduate student from the partnering universities is eligible to apply.

Program Highlights

- Fellows make important contacts with local government officials and business and community leaders.
- Fellows work directly with legislators and legislative staff, conducting research and staffing committees on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from January 11 to June 30, 2022. An orientation will be conducted during the week of January 3, 2022, as preparation.
- Travel to Dover (conditions permitting) from UD is by vanpool, with Fellows leaving campus at 11:00 a.m. and returning at 6:30 p.m.
- Fellows receive a competitive hourly rate.
- Fellows take a three-credit seminar, State Government: Management and Policy, to link their experiences with academic coursework.
