INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION | IPA

IPA is a public service, education, and research center that links the resource capacities of the University of Delaware to the complex needs of governments, nonprofits, and the business community.

WHAT WE CAN DO FOR YOU

Independent Research

We conduct neutral research in a variety of policy areas to help you work through issues and implement strategies that bring about impactful change.

Customized Deliverables

We provide client-oriented, timely, and thorough services. We build long-lasting working relationships and offer customized deliverables to meet your needs.

Student Collaboration

Our energetic and academically driven graduate and undergraduate students work alongside professional staff and contribute to each project. Graduate students also are available to intern directly with your agency.
